

Streaming video now available from Tennessee R.E.A.D.S.

Watch free videos from the library anytime, anywhere

Tennessee R.E.A.D.S. has expanded its services with streaming video available to enjoy from the library's website, <http://reads.lib.overdrive.com> . Library card holders have instant access to streaming video with a growing catalog of digital feature films, documentaries, educational, children's favorites and more with a modern, easy-to-use viewing experience.

Users may browse the video selection on the library's website, borrow titles with a valid library card, and stream on most mobile and desktop devices. All videos will automatically expire at the end of the lending period. There are no late fees!

This new service is free for users with a library card.

Visit <http://reads.lib.overdrive.com> to browse for eBooks and digital audiobooks in addition to streaming video. You can find helpful tools and information, such as contacting support, by clicking the Help button located at the top of the webpage.
